DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:
Incumbent will be responsible for coordinating with local elected officials, communities, chapters and schools in implementing climate change adaptation strategies involving land use, farming, grazing, water conservation, recycling, etc., at the local level. Incumbent will coordinate the development of land restoration projects with NN entities and external partners. Incumbent will also assist Department's Wildlife Biologists, Fish Biologists, Botanist and Zoologist's in the collection and inventory of biological data, wildlife surveying, wildlife capture and marking. Incumbent will also assist in implementing wildlife habitat improvement projects, big game check stations during hunt seasons, and assist with native and recreational fish management projects. Incumbent will also be responsible for conducting education and outreach programs to promote climate change impact awareness and adaptation strategies with the general public; and develop partnerships with community organizations, schools, local venues and universities/colleges to address climate change adaptation on the Navajo Nation. Incumbent will also be responsible for facilitating the Division of Natural Resource's Climate Change Team, coordinate climate change workshops and meeting throughout the Navajo Nation.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: (Education, Experience and Training)

Minimum Qualifications:
• High School diploma/GED, two (2) years experience in natural resource management, wildlife research, wildlife management or climate change/sustainability; or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

Special Requirements:
• Possess a valid State Driver's License.

<<A favorable background investigation>>
(To receive full credit for education, certification, or licensure, transcripts, copies of degrees, certificates, and other appropriate documents must be submitted along with employment application.)

Special Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:
Incumbent must be able to work in remote locations and will be required, occasionally, to campout when conducting field work.

THE NAVAJO NATION GIVES PREFERENCE TO ELIGIBLE AND QUALIFIED APPLICANTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE NAVAJO PREFERENCE IN EMPLOYMENT ACT AND VETERANS’ PREFERENCE.