BACKGROUND INVESTIGATIONS & ADJUDICATION

A background investigation consists of obtaining civil and criminal history reports from the federal, state, local (county/municipal), and tribal jurisdictions. In addition, other negative information maybe considered from the Navajo Nation courts, Ethics & Rules Office, White Collar Crime Unit, Navajo Division of Public Safety, the Office of the Chief Prosecutor, the Department of Personnel Management, the Office of the Auditor General and State Motor Vehicle Departments.

Investigation—Each case file consists of all required reports and shall be thoroughly investigated by obtaining proper court dispositions and other relevant information, if applicable.

Adjudication—All case files shall be thoroughly analyzed to determine whether any offenses may negatively bear upon the individual's fitness to occupy a sensitive position. Dependent upon the information revealed from the required reports, a suitability assessment may be applied.

Determination Notice—Upon the completion of the adjudication process, a determination notice shall be issued to the individual, the respective program, and the Department of Personnel Management informing the individual received a favorable or unfavorable recommendation.
